Class Make-up Sheet

Name: ________________________________

Section: ________________________________

Experiment, project or date missed: ________________________________

Date attended open shop: ________________________________

What I did in open shop: ________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

Signature of TA: ___________________________  Hours Attended: _______

It is your responsibility to make sure you get a copy of this form to your instructor if you would like credit for a missed class. You cannot make up classes for any experiment after it has been handed in.